Food for Thought

During Lent, many of you may have given up sweets, coffee, alcohol, or even social media. Lent is a 40-day journey. If you have chosen to give up something each day, then you will have 40 sacrifices by the end! But remember, it's not just about what we give up, it's also a wonderful chance for us to take on something new and enriching.

If you decide to step back from social media, think of all the time you'll free up for some uplifting spiritual reading. And if you're cutting out that daily coffee, you could donate what you save to your church or a worthy cause. It's a beautiful way to help others! Lent is such a lovely time to stretch ourselves and explore new ideas!

Wishing you all a meaningful and enriching Lent!
